Prophetic Word for Africa's Political Scene

September 2017 - November 2017

Africa

The reign of tyranny is about to end in Africa. The Lord will give unto Africa, leaders with a heart of God and righteousness who will shun iniquity. The seed of corruption will be uprooted. And all the demonic high places and altars of the demonic in Africa will be burnt to the ground and the banner of the Lord Jesus will fly across that continent. The Lord will raise some godly leaders, for there is a revolution coming up, all across Africa and it's going to begin towards the East and southern Africa flowing to the North and to the west, as the continent begins to declare and take a stand for the Lord Jesus, the Lord will put an end to the reign of Tyranny for the voice of my people has risen to the Lord. My hands of the Lord has set in motion a great series of events that even if He told us, we won't believe.

The Lord is saying, in the coming days and weeks in Africa, some very high profile execution/death; the series of high profile death signifies the end of an era, the era of darkness. No matter how clean or just they appear to be on the outside, these are the people who have traded their souls to the enemy, who have exercised strong holds over their nations. The Lord will break the yoke of tyranny in Africa

Nigeria

As they thought President Trump is nonsensical, the Lord needs a man who will say whatever He wants to say. Concerning the political scene of Nigeria, the MKO seed is being raised up. The upcoming one shall be such an interesting one because the people are fed up. Divide divide they will say, but the nation will not be divided instead, the children of former political figures will step in

The spirit of Awolowo is rising up again, where people try to govern with their intellect, but that does not work as well,.. there are parties being formed with his ideal that wants to bring back things from that era, but without the power of the Lord, there won't be any change in Nigeria, Nigeria needs that power, for the southwest has an opportunity to be in power again.

For another seed of Nnamdi Azikwe is coming up. It appears that they team up with the seed of Awolowo or someone who embodies Awolowo, they'll team up to emerge as leaders, but they'll need the power of God to succeed, if they try to do it all on their own, it'll lead nowhere.

Zimbabwe

Something groundbreaking is about to happen. Tell them to go and get ready.

Something great is about to happen in the nation of Zimbabwe. With the jawbone, the Lord will scatter the enemy. There's a new chapter to the story of that nation and it is just getting scattered, so that you'll know the Lord can deliver by many or little. He has broken the gates of brass and cut the bars of iron asunder. They need to pray so that a military coup does not happen
